

Can you skip probate to claim your inherited property?

Small Estate Affidavit

You are entitled to the property as a successor

<$100k

The estate is worth less than $100,000 and includes no real estate

40 days have passed since their passing, and they lived in Washington at the time

All debts have been paid or provided for

You have given notice to all other successors, and 10 days have passed

No one has filed to be named Personal Representative

If all criteria is met, you may use the affidavit

Fill out the Small Estates Affidavit in front of a notary, and make a copy.

Deliver the affidavit, a copy of the certificate, and a copy of RCW 11.62.010 to whoever has the property or owes the debt you are claiming

Learn more here

King County Law Library